CAROLINE TRIMBLE, PASTORAL ASSOCIATE:
Let your light shine for the glory of God. Jesus is the Light of the world, and we are to reflect His Light. Does your life reflect the Light of God? Or it is focused on self? Does it glorify God? Or self? The Light and Glory of God is one of patience and kindness, it is not jealous or pompous, it is not inflated or rude, it does not seek its own interest or is quick tempered, it does not brood or rejoice over wrongs. If these are diminished or lacking - then your light is hidden - maybe not to the world - but to God! Take a moment and ask God if he sees your light? VOCATION CORNER:

A sage once wrote that a good marriage is like a fire around which others come to warm themselves. So, as we celebrate World Marriage Day on this Sunday, we realize that no matter what our station in life - married, single or religious - we have benefited from this sacred covenant relationship whether through the example of our parents, grandparents, and other role models or through our own stewardship of the marriage covenant.

RESPECT LIFE CORNER:

Married love differs from any other love in the world. By its nature, the love of husband and wife is so complete, so ordered to a lifetime of communion with God and each other, that it is open to creating a new human being they will love and care for together." USCCB, Married Love and the Gift of Life

CAROLINE TRIMBLE - PASTORAL ASSOCIATE:

Let your light shine for the glory of God. Jesus is the Light of the world, and we are to reflect His Light. Does your life reflect the Light of God? Or it is focused on self? Does it glorify God? Or self? The Light and Glory of God is one of patience and kindness, it is not jealous or pompous, it is not inflated or rude, it does not seek its own interest or is quick tempered, it does not brood or rejoice over wrongs. If these are diminished or lacking - then your light is hidden - maybe not to the world - but to God! Take a moment and ask God if he sees your light? Journey onward to living a Life of Love and let - God's Light Shine from You - for the Glory of God. Our Lady of Fatima, pray for us!

RESPECT LIFE CORNER:
Married love differs from any other love in the world. By its nature, the love of husband and wife is so complete, so ordered to a lifetime of communion with God and each other, that it is open to creating a new human being they will love and care for together.” USCCB, Married Love and the Gift of Life

VOCATION CORNER:
A sage once wrote that a good marriage is like a fire around which others come to warm themselves. So, as we celebrate World Marriage Day on this Sunday, we realize that no matter what our station in life - married, single or religious - we have benefited from this sacred covenant relationship whether through the example of our parents, grandparents, and other role models or through our own stewardship of the marriage covenant.

You are the Salt and Light!

Jesus says we are the salt of the earth. Have you ever tasted food that wasn't salty enough? It can taste pretty bland. But do you notice when food has the right amount of salt? Usually we don't think about it. It's kind of hiding in the food and making it taste good. Jesus wants us to be like the "salt" in the world, with the goodness and truth that He gives us.

Jesus also says that we are the light of the world. Can you imagine a completely dark world: no sun or lights or anything? It would be pretty scary. You'd never know what was happening or where you were going. That's what the world can be like for people who don't have the light of God's truth. It's our job to bring the truth to the world so that everyone can see that God loves them.

We have to bring God's light everywhere we go. But we must be gentle with people who don't understand the truth. Otherwise it would be like shining a light in someone's eyes, and they wouldn't be able to see anything. We need to start out like little candles, lighting the way so that people can follow us toward God.
